Part IV. CERTIFICATION BY EMPLOYEE

Are the course(s) job-related*: _____ YES _____ NO (Under Internal Revenue Code, may be taxable for grad courses)

*Job-Related Tests: If the two part job-related test is satisfied and documented, graduate level courses taken by employees qualify for exclusion from income. Acceptable documentation would include the employee's supervisor signing section V stating that s/he agrees with the employee's certification that the course is job-related.

The job-related tests are not satisfied unless BOTH of the following tests are met.

FIRST, the educational assistance MUST MEET ONE of the following requirements:

- a. The education must maintain or improve skills required by the employee in his/her job.
b. The education must meet the express requirements of the University imposed as a condition of retaining the job. Please note, the requirement must have a bona fide business purpose, and only the minimum education necessary for retention of employment, status or salary may be considered as undertaken to meet the employer's requirement.

SECOND, the educational assistance MUST MEET BOTH of the following requirements:

- a. The education cannot constitute a minimum educational requirement to qualify for obtaining employment.
b. The education cannot lead to qualifying the individual for a new trade or business. Please note, a change in duties does not constitute a new trade or business if the new duties involve the same general work as is involved in the employee's present work.

If YES is selected, explain briefly:

Blank lines for explanation.
